List of Winter 2022 Courses with an Exception to Remain or Begin In-Person

The following courses have been granted exceptions to be taught in-person either on Main or Foothills Campus. Please refer to your D2L shell for scheduling details including days, times, and locations for the following courses. You can reach out to your instructor for additional information. Table 1 includes all the courses that will begin in-person instruction starting January 31. Table 2 are all courses that have been offered in-person since January 10 and will continue to be in-person.

All other courses are expected to return to in-person instruction on February 28.

Practicums, internships and coop opportunities are expected to remain in-person and off-campus and are not included in this list. Contact your instructor or faculty for any questions or concerns regarding your schedule of classes.

Note that the faculties of Law, Schulich School of Engineering, School of Architecture, Planning and Landscape, School of Public Policy, and Social Work have ZERO exceptions and all courses offered by these faculties will be taught online until January 30.
